Board Change at Binder+Co

Martin Pfeffer has been the new Chief Financial Officer of the Styrian engineering and construction company Binder+Co AG since 1 January 2018. Alexander Liaunig, who had been CFO since May 1, 2017, resigned his mandate on March 15 and returned to the Supervisory Board.

Mr. Pfeffer takes over the agendas of Mr. Liaunig. In addition to the areas of finance and controlling as well as information technology, these also include human resources. In addition, Martin Pfeffer is – within the Binder+Co Group - responsible for the Bublon GmbH.

After earning his doctorate in business management he has been working for Alfred Wall AG and Cap Gemini Ernst & Young AG and acts since 2001 for the MANAGEMENT FACTORY CORPORATE ADVISORY GmbH as a manager in various Austrian companies.

"I am pleased that with Mr. Pfeffer Binder+Co has gained a colleague with many years of experience for the Executive Board team" says Karl Grabner, Member of the Board of Binder+Co AG. "As a medium-sized company, we face particular challenges in the international market, to which we refer with the replacement of our Management Board colleague Mr. Liaunig by Mr. Pfeffer."

The Binder+Co Group

Binder+Co is a specialist in the field of processing, environmental and packaging technology and the world market leader in the screening and glass recycling segments. The Binder+Co Group consists of Binder+Co AG, the four fully owned subsidiaries Comec-Binder S.r.l., Bublon GmbH, Binder+Co Machinery (Tianjin) Ltd. and Binder+Co USA, Inc. as well as the Statec Binder GmbH joint venture (50.7%).
