

Press Release

Gleisdorf/Vienna, 4 May 2017

Binder+Co AG Management Board enlarged

With effect from the beginning of May, a third member has been added to the Management Board team of the Styria-based machinery and plant manufacturer Binder+Co. The responsibilities of the new appointee Alexander Liaunig comprise finance, controlling and human resources. In addition he has assumed responsibility for Bublon GmbH within the Binder+Co Group.

Since 2013, Alexander Liaunig, who has a degree in business administration, has been a member of the Management Board of Liaunig Industrieholding AG, chairman of the Supervisory Boards of Waagner-Biro AG, Waagner-Biro Bridge Systems AG, Waagner-Biro Stahlbau AG and Waagner-Biro Stage Systems AG as well as a member of the Advisory Board of Wild GmbH. With effect from 30 April 2017, he has resigned as member of the Supervisory Board of Binder+Co AG to support the company as a member of the Management Board in the next few years. His successor as Supervisory Board chairwoman is Kerstin Gelbmann, who was appointed to the Supervisory Board of Binder+Co AG in April 2016.

Karl Grabner from the Binder+Co Management Board: “For Binder+Co as a medium-sized company, international expansion represents a special challenge to which we have responded with the appointment to the Management Board of a new, third member. We are delighted that with Alexander Liaunig we are able to welcome a team colleague with many years of experience and extensive knowledge of our company.”
